Lyrics

71

Dopo i giorni i bui
e le crudeltà
per un po' di sale si folleggerà

Dopo pleniluni
di perversità
è l' ora di chiuder la bocca a chi dubita

Siam burattinai
assoldati al nulla trasognanti glorie
da dentro una culla

Autovelox

Utilmente spuntano fra noi per le vie della città marchingegni che rilevano la follia e crudeltà

di quelli che vi passano a grande velocità dimentichi dei limiti imposti da autorità

Se gran bene rendono però e più sicure le nostre vie, più scorrevole anche il traffico più stipendi alle polizie c'è pure chi li critica gente priva di onestà bisogna pur ammettere

che a chi ama l'autorità piacciono

eh eh eh
gli autovelox
piacciono
eh eh eh
gli autovelox

che spremono gli incassi dal-l'ebbrezza in velocità ponendoci dei limiti.
Chi supera, pagherà

Tristemente mancano però
per le vie della città
dissuasori adatti a compiti di robotica fedeltà che sgombrino gli scioperi con gran tempestività e stanino quei reprobì che ancor non hanno il green pass e affrontino i pericoli di chi non vuol vaccinarsi alzando i già notevoli indici di morbilità

eh eh eh
robovelox
eh eh eh
robovelox

c'impongano specifici presidi di civiltà scuotendo i debitori che non pagan per tempo il tax e affrontino il frastuono qui degli ambulanti col sax frustrando i pur lodevoli sforzi di chi ha da governar

eh eh eh
robovelox
eh eh eh
robovelox

Call me out

He moved too fast
Always in a rush
I could never catch him Unless our lust collided

In a move of action
He won, he won
In a moment of silence
He won, he won

Say I'm the bad one
Give it up
Say you're done
Out and about-about it all Who knew I would've fallen For someone like y

He lied through his stained teeth Always passing the blame to me I could never calm his heavy soul And he was unstable

Someday you'll regret leaving my side Cause they won't be able to give you what I did

Love you like I did

Someday you'll wonder about me Thinking about what we could've been But you chose to walk away

Drail

You promised me:
"You shall never die"

Your mouth has eternal flavours

Your lips are soft truth comes along with them

Justice sits in your eyes, like eagles watching around

I will rest between the cherry-trees on a land of gentle acclivities

There won't be storm to worry my hours

I'll be sitting between friends in the peace where you promised me.

And I will look at you, for ever

Feelin' like a god

The chaos, the moans, don't despair, a flower!
Then tears to the ground.

Do you guys know what's goin' on?
Do you guys know what's goin' on today?

Anyone is looking for his place, anyone is looking for a job. There's not.

Wonder why the people don't trust wonder why they don't reply emails.

I feel like a god existing but as the people don't give any trust is not.

You know, I' m feeling like a god.

Feelin' like a god.

Did you guys whenever feel like this Did you guys whenever feel like me?

Like a plant whose root is in the air while the head is covered down into the earth?

I confess that only certain friends can be found in easy way and give their hand.

I am not one of them
I am not one of them
I am not one of them

Halt!

Gimme my money
Gimme my salary

Those kind of speeches we used to have

At three o' clock
he used to enter in the kitchen to pray

Gimme my money
or I will push you back

Gimme my salary
or I will call the police

Mummy' s Hour

Mother of mine
this is your time
we must say goodbye
we must say goodbye

When you' ll be there in the unknown sphere,
mother of mine,
who will prepare the vegetables ripen'd?

And the flowers out there who will care about?
About us?

Mother of mine

this is your time
we must say goodbye
for an earthly hour for the space of a sigh

Mother of mine
when you' ll be there
don't forget to pray that I don't return to be blind

Mother of mine
we must say goodbye

One Ordinary Men

Jogging to hell
with smile on a face flourishing bodies
closed to rubbish

we feel better today
because we shaved

we feel better today
because we shaved

Cued in a supermarket getting very very angry for happened nothing (saving money for a desperating beer)

we feel better today
because we shaved

because we shaved

Ricordo

Chi sono io?

L'abbraccio del fratello mio bambino, l' odor d'alghe pungente a Boccadasse; sassello levigato dalle spiagge.
Sposo e bambino, già morto ma vivo mi ricordo, mi ricordo quando nel mondo ancor biondo muovevo i sassi, per poi disfarli - e ancora lo sto facendo, seguendo il tuo esempio... quando nel mondo
ancor biondo
ammucchiavo i sassi per per poi disfarli

Sono il padre che segue il proprio figlio dicendo di insegnargli. Lo seguiva passin passetto lungo la battigia, levando lui di mano

le pietre più pesanti.

Mi ricordo
quando nel mondo
ancor biondo
ammucchiavo sassi per per poi disfarli, e ancor lo sto facendo seguendo il tuo esempio,
quando nel mondo
ancor biondo
lanciavo sassi per rimbalzarli e poi stavo a guardare sull' onda i cerchi del mare che sono io, che sono io.

Right Wing Immigrant

There is a war in the mouth, war is the mouth of those who preach peace.

I smell their guts with the faith:
inside all of them it is never a clear, bright day.

I came here as an immigrant,
'twas cotober spring in two thousands fifteen, with nor bags, neither insurance, just a cross on the neck.

As a right wing immigrant leave me the right to be different,
leave me the right

to be somewhere else.

Rights just stand on the right hand
since the world began, so why these people claim on things will be forever left, will be for ever left?

Yes, men, I dare to say what I meant:
in Jerusalem there won't be any joy for those who are wanting to pervert
- who want to pervert - our fleshy natural core.

We don't have the right to set differences

We don't have the right to be someone else
to change our natural sex
and you know why.

When I was still adolescent, saw the incoherence
in the pupil left eye:
it could be shown to a blind.
So I turned to be right.

Rune

I am on the clouds
I am on the crowd
I am on the storm
I am on the foam
I made your bones
I am on the stones
I solved your doubts
I grow you up
I took you out from pride

All what is there beneath the time everything tells my Mind I filled you with seeds Give birth to sons children like Me
my earthly plants

I stopped your tongue from carrying wrong
I shed my blood for love

Sad Sad Christmas

My father said I cultivate illusions.
Illusions I cultivate.
My sister cracked again and again.
Again and again my sister cracked.

Is this Christmas, when no Christ has born?
Is this the place, where I would like to stay?
Where is my place, here on earth or somewhere beyond?

I fight for a decent way, noy too honest, not too fool: a way that I could.
It is a rare gift to make people happier.
Let us wash our souls in the blood of the innocent.

Let us come to be humans, spirits of a prayer.
Help us to tear away from the face of the world the shit that we made.
